NOTES:

- The Unit dates are staggered to allow you to gain the required knowledge for the individual units, as some units are larger than others and require extra knowledge and preparation for assessment this has been factored into the timetable.
- Assessments are due two (2) days before the next unit start date and are available on Moodle.
- Practical Assessment Weekend dates are pending upon operational (Sydney, Melbourne and Brisbane facilities) and external environmental conditions (COVID) and will be reorganised as soon as possible.
- Once your state trainer is assigned, they will contact you to introduce themselves and provide contact details and an indication of the schedule for face to face tutorial sessions.
- 120 hours of work placement is required to be logged throughout the duration of your course.
- A broad estimate of study hours required for this course is 7-10 hours per week.
