What sought of jobs could I apply for if I successfully completed this course?

Working as an Animal Trainer you will condition animals to respond to commands through the use of positive reinforcement. You will discuss and work with animal owners to determine their goals and expectations, create a training regime, monitor animals for health and behavioural issues and develop an understanding of an animal's unique abilities.

Jobs can include: Animal Trainer.

What is so important about our Certificate IV in Animal Behaviour and Training course?

We provide 120 hours of work placement at our Hanrob Pet Hotels (insurance included). This will give our students the necessary dog behaviour training skills.

What are the course requirements?

Students must:

- reside in Australia;
- be an Australian citizen, or hold a permanent humanitarian visa and usually reside in Australia, or be a qualifying New Zealand citizen; ·
- be a minimum of 18 years of age; ·
- successfully complete the HC Learning Literacy and Numeracy (LLN) review (if students have difficulty with the LLN, HC may request the student approach another RTO to consider undertaking the course);

- have access to a computer that operates Microsoft Office suite and connected to the internet;
- be able to attend the practical assessment weekends at either of the three Hanrob Pet Hotels (in Sydney, Brisbane or Melbourne) as scheduled in the timetable; and
- students are required to undertake 120 hours of work placement at Hanrob Pet Hotels (or other approved animal facilities) throughout the duration of the course, which will enhance the student's experience, knowledge and companion animal skills; and
- be able to control a dog during practical training; and
- supply rubber soled shoes/boots, sun hat.

To finish this course, what do I have to do?

To complete this course, students must complete all assessments (both written and practical tasks) in each unit (16 units in total) to be competent. Written assessments are completed within our student learning platform 'Moodle'. Practical assessments are held at the end of each module at our Hanrob Pet Hotels facilities in Heathcote, Melbourne and Brisbane (practical dates depend on student numbers and operational requirements e.g.: COVID restrictions).

Students are assigned a trainer/assessor at the beginning of the course. They are your first point-of-call with everything regarding your course. They will direct you to other staff for other areas of concern e.g.: administration/finance.

Students will be given a weekly tutorial with their trainer/assessor who will go over and assist with activities/assessments, give clarification/examples about your unit. They are also available via email and will reply within 48 hours of receipt.

If at the end of the course, if you have been deemed competent in all units, you will be issued a full qualification. If you have not been competent in some units of competency in your course, you will be issued a Statement of Attainment for those units you have been deemed competent.

The course start date has already commenced, am I still able to join?

Please contact us, as you may be able to join within two (2) weeks of the course starting, however you will be expected to meet the eligibility requirements, complete the Learning, Literacy and Numeracy review (LLN) and catch-up on the course work already conducted.

What is a USI and how do I get one?

A Unique Student Identifier (USI) is a set of 10 numbers and letters created by the Commonwealth Government that registers all courses and all completed units of competency and is compulsory for students studying nationally recognised courses in Australia.

You can contact the USI registry directly to get set up.
